

Terms of Participation

Disclaimer

Each participant declares with his/her registration to the retreat that he/she can act independently and indemnifies the organizer against any and all liability claims.

The retreat will also include outdoor activity offers that are voluntary to participate in. With your registration, you confirm that the participation in the program is at your own discretion.

Terms of Cancellation

In case of cancellation of two (2) months or more prior to the retreat, a cancellation fee of € 150 applies, up to one (1) month prior to the retreat a cancellation fee of € 300 will become due. In case of cancellations less than 30 days before the start of the retreat, a cancellation fee of € 540 will apply.

In case of cancellation of the participant due to force majeure (illness, accident etc.) a voucher is issued as a gesture of goodwill by the organizers, which can be used for upcoming retreats or other offers according to availability. If the participant is prevented and sends a substitute, the entire amount, minus an administrative fee of € 40, will be refunded .

In case of cancellation of the retreat by the organizers due to force majeure (illness, Accident etc.), the retreat fee will be credited and a voucher for a new one. By agreeing to these Terms of Participation, you agree that no further claims may be made.

Shared list of participants

Before the retreat, contact information (name and email) will be shared among the participants for the purpose of easing or sharing transport to the retreat location. Apart from enabling communication among participants, no data will be passed on to third parties.

CONFIRMATION OF REGISTRATION

After registration (via email form and transfer of the entire amount) each participant will receive a booking confirmation and invoice. Also, about 2 weeks before the start of the retreat, you will receive a short document with more information about the retreat (getting there information and help etc.).
